

PAPA SELECTED NJAC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Consecutive Red Hawk southpaws claw Conference Award

04/16/2012

Montclair, NJ- Sophomore Dylan Papa earned the New Jersey Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Week on Monday.

In the second game of a doubleheader at Rowan University, on Saturday, Papa tossed his first NCAA D-III career shutout and his third complete game. The southpaw from South Plainfield, NJ surrendered five hits, struck out two batters, and yielded no walks.

In nine appearances this season, Pappa has compiled a 1-1 record with a 4.58 ERA, in 37 innings of work.

Montclair State defeated the Profs in both games of the twin bill by identical scores of 3-0. Papa succeeded teammate senior lefthander Sean Hille who claimed the award last week.

The Red Hawks host Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Yogi Berra Stadium, this Tuesday at 3:00 pm. Junior Sujith Murali (0-0) will make his first start for the Engineers. The Red Hawks will counter with senior Jack McDonough (3-0). Montclair State Head Coach Norm Schoenig seeks to earn his historic 700th career win. Listen to the live webcast on <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/montclair-state-baseball>